Description

Thank you for your interest in the Technology Exploration (TekX) Dual Credit Program. TekX is a collaboration between the College of New Caledonia (CNC), the University of Northern British Columbia (UNBC), and School District 57. Throughout the TekX program, you will engage in hands-on learning while expanding your knowledge of current and advancing topics in technology and earn credits at high school and post-secondary at the same time. Upon successful completion of the TekX program, you will graduate with an Associate Certificate in Technology Exploration.

Note that to qualify for dual credit, the British Columbia Ministry of Education requires that the course be approved by an authorized representative of School District 57. before the student registers for the course.

Students interested in TekX must:

- Be in good academic standing.
- Obtain the signature of their principal (or counsellor) and a parent or guardian (if under 18) as part of the application process, indicating that their readiness to complete a post-secondary coursework successfully.
- Be Canadian Citizens or Permanent Residents.

Applications for the TekX program are now open! To secure your place, submit a completed application at least one month before the start of your desired semester. The program is available for the September and January semesters, but seats are limited, and applications may close early once all spots are filled.

Keys to Success at CNC and UNBC

• Attendance Matters!

While enrolled in the TekX program, it is the expectation that you will attend every class to successfully meet course competencies.

- Make sure you have transportation to and from CNC.
- Notify your CNC instructor via email if you will be late and/or absent.
- If you are continuously late or absent from class, you run the risk of being withdrawn from CNC.

• CNC and UNBC Community Values

At CNC and UNBC, we strive to foster a campus community characterized by accountability, respect, inclusivity, and safety. We expect integrity, academic honesty, and respectful behavior from students, faculty and staff, trusting that they will conduct themselves accordingly in all aspects of campus life.

CNC and UNBC students are expected to adhere to the respective Codes of Conduct at all partner institutions. You are encouraged to visit CNCs and UNBCs for a comprehensive list of policies and procedures.
